

Clarinets

- Made of aged Grenadilla wood, an African blackwood known for its density and the warm, dark tone it produces
- Additional keywork can help with awkward fingering transitions
- More advanced bore design (inside shape of the instrument)
 - Better intonation
 - Better response
- Increased quality of design and workmanship
- Additional mouthpiece and barrel options to customize sound

